Dear Customer,

finite resources and endless mountains of rubbish sets the tone for the first digital edition of the PERFORMANCE DAYS. The trade fair is now live and takes place from December 9 to 10. They have chosen the most important Focus Topic in this time: „Nothing to waste – closing the loop“ with particular attention to recycling, circularity and sustainability.

Check out the digital booth & learn more about Sustainable Breast Padding for sports & athleisure wear

Fit it... Innovative BraCup shapes support the breast movement, while being active. The collection offers innovations for all types of activities from low, medium to high level support.

Feel it... The new Anatomic BraCups are created with functional and sustainable materials that underline the right functional features like breathability, sensual feel and fit.

Love it... Our environmentally friendly BraCups transport piece of mind regarding awareness for our nature, earth and body. With our non-toxic materials, it means wellness for the female skin.
