

Our new SPACER BraCups: „Airy Feeling... light pricing“

The highly demanded, new Airy SPACER Base for the modern Bra...

You may offer to your customers the „state of the art“ SPACER BraCup for a light price!

Muehlmeier has designed the Airy SPACER Padding in order to give every fashion brand in the Baby Boomer market and especially for the Y-generation the opportunity to offer „up to date“ SPACER BraCup padding.

Airy Feeling for a natural breast instead of tight cups cuddly, light and breathable, keeps a fresh and breezy feeling because of its airy structure, „free of foam & lightweight alternative“ to all usual paddings

The great chance to strengthen your competitive position!

Looking forward to your interest and your inquiry.
Which shape of BraCup do you need?
Strap, Balcony, Plunge or Triangle?
